

Sebastian Inlet Navigation Guide

Atlantic Ocean

Sebastian Inlet

Hwy A1A

State Park Marina Channel

State Park

State Park

Boat Ramp

Boat Ramp Channel

Long Point Park

The new channel connecting the Intracoastal Waterway with the Sebastian Inlet passes through sensitive seagrass areas. Authorization to dredge this channel was based on efforts to protect these seagrass beds

Funding & Regulatory Partners

US Army Corps of Engineers

This Aerial Photograph is for General Reference Only, and is Not Intended to be Used for Navigation. It is Recommended that NOAA and USCG Navigation Charts be used for Navigation

Sebastian Inlet is a Very Dangerous Inlet, with Extremely Strong Currents and Standing Waves in the Entrance

Intracoastal Waterway

Brevard County

Indian River County

Indian River Lagoon

Channel Controlling Depths 7 to 9 ft.

Slow Speed outside marked channel

Marker #30

ICW Marker #63

Slow Speed west of Intracoastal Waterway

Intracoastal Waterway

To Sebastian River

More Information Found at:
www.sebastianinletdistrict.com

